You may be mistaken for thinking that Mary Poppins had just flown in from Cherry Tree Lane but we had a visit from the wonderful Emma performing an amazing show from those good ol' days.

Songs, anecdote's, cockney humour and a sing-along all made for a great evening.

Emma's drama skills were a delight to see as she stepped into the shoes of various characters. Speaking of shoes... I did learn that she has almost 30 pairs to ensure that she doesn't wear the same ones to a venue twice! ( Hmmm I can just hear all the men saying... 'yeah, I know someone like that!')

Slippers for Christmas?

Yes the season will soon be with us and this year has seemed to pass quicker than ever. Some, have started Christmas shopping already and may be considering gifts for your loved ones here at The Lodge.

If you are considering clothing and unsure of sizes, or may just like to know if anyone is a little short of something, please ask us and we will of course do our best to help.

Remember too that footwear should be comfortable, fit well with no risk of slipping. Unlike my snugly reindeer ones!

Fancy a bit of free lunch!
Tuesday 21st November—3pm

Bon appetito

We are very lucky to have our meals prepared by apetito, who are masters at creating dishes providing all the valuable nutrients we need and they taste beautiful. The company provide a wide range of choice and also able to adapt to any special dietary needs.

Our local representative, Georgia, will be visiting with some of their new dishes and has opened the invitation to yourselves to come along and join us for a 'taste testing' session.

It should make for a wonderful afternoon as we have our regular entertainers Cosmic Sparkle coming in to perform an hour before. So please come along, though be aware that I have a soft spot for their puddings and may be very protective of them :)

HAPPY HALLOWEEN

Thankfully we had a visit from a very kind witch and no one at The Lodge was turned into mice or frogs on October 31st. Becki performed a selection of special songs such as 'I'll put a spell on you' and dressed wonderfully for the occasion.

This month we had a chap in a scruffy suit, tripping up in the lounge calling for Mr. Grimsdale! Welcome Glen Ford... or should that be Norman Wisdom.

What a wonderful afternoon of laughter, song, tears and joy. This was Norman. Glen lived, breathed this legendary performer and the likeness was as close, as a twin brother. All the mannerisms were there which continued off stage too. Of course Norman loved picking on people with the slightly embarrassing humorous comments in a way that took us back to the great days of comedy. A few surprises too, with guest appearances of Buddy Holly and Cliff Richard which had us all up and dancing. Normans songs too were perfect, highlighting with the famous 'don't laugh at me I'm just a fool.'

Indeed we were fooled Glen. But for an afternoon we really did have Norman Wisdom with us at The Lodge.

We look forward to another Old Time Music Hall show bringing comedy and songs from the London Palladium...
